

What's On in Coverack March 2019

Come and visit Coverack if you can. All Car Parks have an 'Honesty Box' with the money going to the upkeep of the public toilets and local charities. There is a lovely sandy beach at low and mid tide, dogs welcome but please keep your dog under control and clear up after them, putting dog waste in the bins provided. Thank you.

Although it is off season there are still a number of businesses open: Coverack Village stores and café open daily. Post Office in St Peter's Hall TR12 6TE 1:30 – 4:30pm Monday & Thursday afternoons only. The Paris, The Lifeboat House and Harbour Lights are regularly open and The Bay Hotel opens from 11th March, more businesses will be opening as we head through March. Please check with individual businesses for their opening hours.

March

Tues 5th Coverack Beach Clean (First Tuesday of every month). Anyone can help out, any time of day. Please place collected rubbish by the dog waste bin at North Corner, Coverack. Low tide is at 11am so there will some beach to clean all morning and until about 3pm. Please consider doing a 2 minute beach clean whenever you visit the beach – if everyone did this we would have a lot less litter in the sea.

Tues 5th CS2000 have organised Beach Cleaning and Pancake racing on the beach for Coverack School children 10am on Coverack Beach + Pancakes for the children in St Peter's Hall.

Wed 6th, 13th, 20th & 27th Quiz Night at The Paris 8pm. Come and test your brain power!

Sunday 24th Scratchworks Theatre presents 'Womans' (as in Romans!) at the Lambeage Hall. Packed full of physical comedy, clowning and original music. It's 46BC, Ancient Rome. Our hero, Leta, has been declared a traitor by the Roman Senate. She is given a punishment worse than death – Damnatio Memoriae – to be erased from history. Whilst noble Gladiators and infamous Emperors around her are becoming legends, her name will be scratched out and forgotten forever. But with the help from some mischievous Muses, she decides to rebel against the Republic. Join Leta's determined journey to reclaim her place in the history books, from crashing the Colosseum, to bargaining with Brutus, she will go to the ends of the empire to make her mark.

WOMANS is a feast for the eyes and ears, packed full of physical comedy, clowning and original music. Coinciding with the centenary of the first votes for women in the UK, it tells the raucous tale of the first female resistance.

Doors and Bar open at 7pm Tickets: Adult £10, Under 16s £7, Family £30.

Tickets available in advance via the link on the Lambeage Hall website or on the door. Audience Everyone 7+
